☒ For FMX, the Faculty Member will be provided with a $550 stipend for each speaking day.

c. Payment. All honorarium compensation and reimbursements will be in the form of a check issued by the AAFP. Reimbursement checks will be issued within 30 days upon completed work or the AAFP's receipt of properly completed Faculty Voucher. The Faculty Member shall direct above such payments to be payable to any one of the following:

- to the Faculty Member
- to the Faculty Member's employer/practice
- to the AAFP Foundation
- to the AAFP
- to the STFM Foundation

The Faculty Member may not divide expense reimbursements among multiple individuals and/or entities.

4. Licensure and Maintenance of Certification. The Faculty Member represents and warrants that, to the extent applicable, the (i) Faculty Member is duly certified or licensed to practice by the professional regulatory body(ies) of the jurisdiction(s) in which the Faculty Member practices, and (ii) Faculty Member's certification in the applicable Maintenance of Certification physician program has not lapsed or expired. If there is an investigation, suspension, or other change in status of Faculty Member's licensure or certification as set forth in the previous sentence, the Faculty Member shall promptly notify the AAFP of such investigation, suspension, or other change in status.

5. Term and Termination.

a. The term of this Agreement will end on the last date listed in the table set forth in Section 2(b); however, if a Self-Study Package is slated for creation from a Session, then the term will end on the completion of the Faculty Member's deliverables related to the Self-Study Package or twelve (12) months after that Session's presentation date, whichever occurs earlier.

b. Either party may terminate this Agreement for any reason (and in the case of the AAFP, including, but not limited to, the Faculty Member's non-compliance with the completeness and acceptability criteria set forth in the second sentence of Section 2(e)) as long as such party provides written notice to the other party at least sixty (60) days before July 18, 2016. The AAFP may terminate this Agreement immediately upon sending written notice to the Faculty Member (i) if the Faculty Member refuses to complete any of the Faculty Member's duties or responsibilities set forth in Section 2 or (ii) if the AAFP decides in its discretion to do so based on the changed status of the Faculty Member's licensure and/or certification as set forth in Section 4. Either party may terminate this Agreement by sending written notice to the other party if the other party breaches this Agreement (and such party has not cured the breach within fourteen (14) days after receipt of such notice).

c. The Faculty Member (i) understands that the AAFP discourages individuals speaking at FMX CME events from participating in commercial or promotional exhibits, including, without limitation, Satellite CME Events and Product Theaters (a "Concurrent Event") held over the same days as the FMX CME activity whether or not officially sponsored by the AAFP, and (ii) agrees that if the Faculty Member chooses to participate in a Concurrent Event during FMX, the Faculty Member shall promptly notify the AAFP of such participation, which may entitle AAFP to terminate this Agreement.

d. Upon early termination of this Agreement: (a) the Faculty Member will no longer be entitled to the honorarium compensation and expense reimbursements set forth in Section 3, and (b) neither party will be liable to the other for any damage or loss sustained by reason of, or resulting from, the termination of this Agreement.

6. Conflict of Interest. The Faculty Member acknowledges that he or she has completed the AAFP's Conflict of Interest Form prior to entering into this Agreement. The Faculty Member shall have a continuing obligation to update his or her Conflict of Interest Form as changes to his or her relationships occur. Additionally, at least sixty (60) days prior to the earliest date listed in the table set forth in Section 2(b), and if applicable, within one year of such date, the Faculty Member shall (a) submit notification of update of his or her Conflict of Interest Form to the Project Strategist or (b) confirm to the Project Strategist that his or her Conflict of Interest Form remains complete and accurate.

7. Independent Contractor. The parties agree that the Faculty Member's status under this Agreement is that of an independent contractor and that the Faculty Member is not an employee of the AAFP. As an independent contractor, the Faculty Member is responsible for all taxes relating to payments made under this Agreement and is not eligible to participate in the AAFP's benefit plans.

8. Intellectual Property Matters. The Faculty Member will grant to the AAFP certain rights and licenses to the Materials and make certain representations and warranties with respect to the Materials, all as set forth in a Authorship Form for Presentation/Materials, which will be incorporated herein by reference.

10. Commercial Support. The Faculty Member acknowledges the AAFP accepts commercial support for its CME activities and topics with a demonstrated need for family medicine physician education. Inclusion of a financially supported program in the Activity does not constitute the AAFP's endorsement of a product or service. All supporting companies will be required to sign an agreement to abide by all ACCME Standards for Commercial Support Continuing Medical Education.

11. Confidentiality. With respect to any information supplied by the AAFP to the Faculty Member in connection with this Agreement and designated by AAFP as confidential or restricted, or which the Faculty Member should reasonably believe is confidential based on its subject matter or the circumstances of its disclosure (including, but not limited to AAFP research data or AAFP financial data), the Faculty Member agrees to protect the confidential information in a reasonable and appropriate manner and to not disclose such information to any third party. The foregoing obligations will not apply to information which is: (i) publicly known, (ii) disclosed by a third party not subject to a similar obligation of confidentiality, (iii) independently developed, or (iv) required to be disclosed pursuant to legal requirement or order (in such case, the Faculty Member shall promptly notify the AAFP to enable the AAFP to pursue a protective order).

12. Miscellaneous.

a. Modification; Waiver. This Agreement may be modified or amended only by a written instrument executed by both parties after the date hereof. The AAFP's waiver of any provision or default under this Agreement will not constitute a waiver concerning any other provision and will not affect the AAFP's right to thereafter exercise any right or remedy concerning any other provision or default whether similar or not.

b. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including the Exhibits hereto and any documents and instruments executed in connection with this Agreement, constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.

d. Assignment. This Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns. Neither party shall assign all or any part of this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party.
