Documents Required Immediately
Speaker Acceptance Confirmation & Workshop Information: This form confirms your willingness to present the noted workshop at the 2013 RPS Conference. It also shows the workshop information you submitted as well as your assigned presentation time(s) and room(s). The information highlighted in green will appear "as is" in the official RPS program. The primary speaker is responsible for reviewing, completing, and returning this form to pdw-rps@aafp.org by the due date. If this information is not correct, indicate so at the top of the form and correct information in red font.	November 19	Primary Speaker	☐
Documents Required with Presentation
CME Policy and Procedures for Full Disclosure and Identification and Resolution of Conflicts of Interest: This form explains the AAFP's CME policy on various conflicts of interest and details any such conflicts the speakers may have. If you do not have current information on file, this form must be completed online. The form is found on the AAFP website at https://nf.aafp.org/ConflictOfInterest/form/cme/. The RPS staff will coordinate with your co-speakers to ensure they have a current CME disclosure on file.	January 25	Primary Speaker and all Co-speakers	☐
Intellectual Property Permission Documentation: (Attached to email) This form identifies all authorship and third party content in your presentation materials and documents that you have permission to use the content. If the presentation does not contain such material, the primary speaker should indicate "no" in the first section, sign, date, and return the document. If the presentation does contain such material, the primary speaker must complete the second section for each piece of authorship or third party content. Submit completed form to pdw-rps@aafp.org by the due date.	January 25	Primary Speaker	☐
Consent, License and Warranties for Presentation / Materials: (Attached to email) This form gives the AAFP the right to use the presentation and other material in the official PDW program, on the PDW website, and other places. Submit completed form to pdw@aafp.org by the due date.	January 25	Primary Speaker	☐
