Personal Statement

I am interested in being a New Physician Alternate Delegate/Co-Convener because I am passionate about the mission and aims of NCCL, and think it vital for the voice of new physicians to be represented in the AAFP. I came to NCCL because I want to take more responsibility and a more active role in advocacy for myself, my colleagues, and my patients. Like many others, I was complacent for too long, always thinking that someone else would "take care of things" for me. This past November changed that, and made me realize that I had to step up and speak out. I have become involved in advocacy in my state chapter, marched in DC in the March for Women, and now make a concerted effort to stay informed of developments that affect family physicians. I am new to advocacy at the National Level, but would work very hard to advocate for the concerns that affect us every day.

Personal Statement

I am Keisha Harvey, a new physician working in Bogalusa, LA. I had the prestigious opportunity of serving as the resident delegate to the congress of delegates. It was an awesome experience to see the interworkings of the academy and be surrounded by so many passionate and innovative thinkers; as an advocate and swift learner, I was in my element. I now want to be your new physician alternate delegate because I desire to affect change for family physicians on a national level. If elected my service will be one of joy and I will make you proud.

Personal Statement

I look fesword to NCCL all year long so that I can network with the colleagues I have met over the years, advocate for my colleagues and patients on all the issues I feel most passionate about. I am ready to serve as the New Physician co-convener and alternate delegate and want to do this so that I can help all the New physicians such as myself find their voice to be extraordinary advocates for what they believe in. I believe I am qualified for this because of my service to the NCCL over the last 4 years, my service to the IL Academy since medical school and mostly because of my passion and advocacy for family medicine.

(Include a brief personal statement expressing your interest, qualifications, and areas of expertise and practice.)

I am declaring candidacy for (mark only one):
