5. Term and Termination.
 - a. The term of this Agreement will end on the latest date listed in the table set forth in Section 2(b).
 - b. Either party may terminate this Agreement for any reason as long as such party provides written notice to the other party by July 14, 2017. The AAFP may terminate this Agreement immediately upon sending written notice to the Faculty Member (i) if the Faculty Member refuses to complete any of the Faculty Member's duties or responsibilities set forth in Section 2, (ii) if the AAFP decides in its discretion to do so based on the changed status of the Faculty Member's licensure and/or certification as set forth in Section 4, or (iii) if the AAFP decides in its discretion to do so based on the Faculty Member's participation in a Concurrent Event (defined in Section 5(c) below). Either party may terminate this Agreement by sending written notice to the other party if the other party breaches this Agreement (and such party has not cured the breach within fourteen (14) days after receipt of such notice).
 - c. The Faculty Member (i) understands that the AAFP discourages individuals speaking at FMX CME events from participating in any commercial or promotional exhibit, including, without limitation, Satellite CME Events and Product Theaters (a "Concurrent Event"), held over the same days as the FMX CME activity whether officially sponsored by the AAFP, and (ii) agrees that if the Faculty Member chooses to participate in a Concurrent Event during FMX, the Faculty Member shall promptly notify the AAFP of such participation, which may entitle AAFP to terminate this Agreement.
 - d. Upon early termination of this Agreement: (a) the Faculty Member will no longer be entitled to the honoraria/um compensation and expense reimbursements set forth in Section 3, and (b) neither party will be liable to the other for any damage or loss sustained by reason of, or resulting from, the termination of this Agreement.
6. Conflict of Interest. The Faculty Member acknowledges that he or she has completed the AAFP's Conflict of Interest Form prior to entering into this Agreement. The Faculty Member shall have a continuing obligation to update his or her Conflict of Interest Form as changes to his or her relationships occur. Additionally, by July 14, 2017, and if applicable, within one year of such date, the Faculty Member shall (a) submit notification of update of his or her Conflict of Interest Form to the AAFP or (b) confirm to the AAFP that his or her Conflict of Interest Form remains complete and accurate.
7. Independent Contractor. The parties agree that the Faculty Member's status under this Agreement is that of an independent contractor and that the Faculty Member is not an employee of the AAFP. As an independent contractor, the Faculty Member is responsible for all taxes relating to payments made under this Agreement and is not eligible to participate in the AAFP's benefit plans.

8. The Faculty Member's Ownership and Use. As between the AAFP and the Faculty Member, the Faculty Member will be the sole owner of any Materials developed, submitted and/or used by the Faculty Member in connection with FMX. The Faculty Member represents and warrants (a) that the Materials are factually accurate and contain no libelous or otherwise unlawful statements; (b) that the Faculty Member owns and/or has the right to use the Materials as contemplated hereunder; and (c) that such use will not violate the proprietary or personal rights of any third party (including, without limitation, copyrights, trademarks or privacy rights).
9. The Faculty Member's Grant of Rights to the AAFP. The Faculty Member grants to the AAFP and its designees the following rights and licenses on a non-exclusive, irrevocable, worldwide, sub-licensable basis:
 - a. The right to record the Faculty Member's presentation and/or Materials on audio/video, and to reproduce, distribute and sell transcripts, copies and audio/video recordings of the same, in whole or in part, for any and all lawful purposes and in any form or format, including, without limitation, print, current and future electronic media (e.g., DVD, CD-Rom, flash drive) and the Internet/Intranet and other online networks (collectively, "Format");
 - b. The right for the Faculty Member's presentation and/or Materials to be presented by other faculty/presenters if the Faculty Member is unable to attend FMX due to illness, death of a family member, or as determined by the AAFP;
 - c. The right to use the Faculty Member's name, likeness, image, photograph and biographical data in connection with the promotion and distribution of the presentation and/or Materials;
 - d. The right to include all or part of the presentation and/or Materials in presentation slides, handouts and other program materials, which are made available in any Format and the right to revise the materials as deemed appropriate for inclusion thereof;
 - e. The right to include all or part of the presentation and/or Materials in AAFP or third party publications published and/or distributed in print media (e.g., published program materials, transcripts, presentation summaries) and the right to revise the materials as deemed appropriate for inclusion thereof; and
 - f. The right to make derivatives of all or part of the presentation and/or Materials and to include the same in reprints, anthologies, translations and any other AAFP products or publications.

The Faculty Member represents and warrants that AAFP's exercise of any such rights will not violate the rights of any third party. This Section 9 will survive any termination of this Agreement.

10. Force Majeure. Except for the reimbursement of any travel expenses incurred by the Faculty Member, neither party will be responsible for any failure to perform under this Agreement due to causes beyond its reasonable control, including, but not limited to, acts of God, war or terrorist activity, government regulation, labor disputes, or serious accidents.
11. Commercial Support. The Faculty Member acknowledges the AAFP accepts commercial support for its CME activities and topics with a demonstrated need for family medicine physician education. Inclusion of a financially supported program at FMX does not constitute the AAFP's endorsement of a product or service. All supporting companies will be required to sign an agreement to abide by all ACCME Standards for Commercial Support Continuing Medical Education.

12. Confidentiality. With respect to any information supplied by the AAFP to the Faculty Member in connection with this Agreement and designated by AAFP as confidential or restricted, or which the Faculty Member should reasonably believe is confidential based on its subject matter or the circumstances of its disclosure (including, for example, AAFP research data or AAFP financial data), the Faculty Member agrees to protect the confidential information in a reasonable and appropriate manner and to not disclose such information to any third party. The foregoing obligations will not apply to information which is: (i) publicly known, (ii) disclosed by a third party not subject to a similar obligation of confidentiality, (iii) independently developed, or (iv) required to be disclosed pursuant to legal requirement or order (in such case, the Faculty Member shall promptly notify the AAFP to enable the AAFP to pursue a protective order).

13. Miscellaneous.

- a. Modification; Waiver. This Agreement may be modified or amended only by a written instrument executed by both parties after the date hereof. The AAFP's waiver of any provision or default under this Agreement will not constitute a waiver concerning any other provision and will not affect the AAFP's right to thereafter exercise any right or remedy concerning any other provision or default whether similar or not.
- b. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and any documents and instruments executed in connection with this Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.
