

The Cannabis Conundrum: Ask the Expert

Steven Wright, MD

ACTIVITY DISCLAIMER

The material presented here is being made available by the American Academy of Family Physicians for educational purposes only. This material is not intended to represent the only, nor necessarily best, methods or procedures appropriate for the medical situations discussed. Rather, it is intended to present an approach, view, statement, or opinion of the faculty, which may be helpful to others who face similar situations.

The AAFP disclaims any and all liability for injury or other damages resulting to any individual using this material and for all claims that might arise out of the use of the techniques demonstrated therein by such individuals, whether these claims shall be asserted by a physician or any other person. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the data presented here. Physicians may care to check specific details such as drug doses and contraindications, etc., in standard sources prior to clinical application. This material might contain recommendations/guidelines developed by other organizations. Please note that although these guidelines might be included, this does not necessarily imply the endorsement by the AAFP.

DISCLOSURE

It is the policy of the AAFP that all individuals in a position to control content disclose any relationships with commercial interests upon nomination/invitation of participation. Disclosure documents are reviewed for potential conflict of interest (COI), and if identified, conflicts are resolved prior to confirmation of participation. Only those participants who had no conflict of interest or who agreed to an identified resolution process prior to their participation were involved in this CME activity.

All individuals in a position to control content for this activity have indicated they have no relevant financial relationships to disclose.

The content of my material/presentation in this CME activity will include discussion of unapproved or investigational uses of products or devices as indicated: I will be presenting literature about the potential medical uses of cannabis which is not approved.

Steven Wright, MD

Consultant, Medical Pain Management and Addiction.

Dr. Wright is a graduate of Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine, Cleveland, Ohio. He was in family medicine practice for 32 years and is now active in addiction medicine and medical pain management. He focuses on these areas through consulting, public speaking, advocacy, policy development, education, medical legal work, and medical provider assessment and supervision. Dr. Wright's clinical interests include the neurophysiology and treatment of pain and addiction. In particular, he focuses on etiology, pharmacogenetics, opioids, psychiatric medications, and cannabis, with an emphasis on adverse consequences, best practices, and systems of care. Dr. Wright actively participates in the Colorado Pain Society as vice president and physician liaison, the Colorado Society of Addiction Medicine treasurer and delegate, the Prescription Drug Abuse Committee of the Colorado Medical Society, and the Colorado Consortium for Prescription Drug Abuse. He is involved in a variety of related projects and speaks across the country on opioids, opioid-induced constipation, cannabis, pharmacogenetics, and risks managing controlled medication use.

Learning Objectives

1. Discuss solutions for overcoming barriers to providing optimal management of cannabis use and addiction in practice.

Audience Engagement System

