Consent for Publication of Photograph, Video, or Other Identifying Material by Assignment

Name: _____
(Please print) (Last) (First) (Middle initial)

By signing below, I hereby assign and transfer to the American Academy of Family Physicians (“AAFP”) all rights, title, and interest in and to my photograph, video, and/or other identifying material that I am providing to the AAFP herewith (the “Material”), along with all rights in and to the copyright of the Material.

I hereby waive any right to inspect or approve the finished product wherein the Material appears, and I waive any monetary or other claims arising from or related to the use of the Material.

I understand the following:

- The Material may be published, copied, or distributed in American Family Physician and associated publications; on the American Family Physician website; on other internet sites, including but not limited to Facebook and YouTube; and in any other multimedia or electronic medium existing now or in the future. The Material may not be published elsewhere by any other third party without the written permission of the AAFP.
- American Family Physician is published by the AAFP twice each month. It is mailed to approximately 180,500 physicians in the United States and some foreign countries.
- Content from American Family Physician is also published on the internet at <http://www.aafp.org/afp>. This website is open to the general public.
- If deemed appropriate, the AAFP may grant permission for articles in American Family Physician to be translated into other languages and distributed to physicians in foreign countries.
- The Material will not be used for advertising or promotional purposes other than those directly related to the American Family Physician journal and its associated products and services (e.g., podcasts, subscriptions).
- The Material will not be used out of context (example: the photograph will not be published in an article that is unrelated to the subject of the photograph).
