Note: Codes that include NOS (not otherwise specified) or unspc. (unspecified) have alternative codes that are more specific. These can be found in or near the section of ICD-9-CM that deals with the relevant three-digit codes. The 100 codes preceded by an arrow (➤) have been identified by the authors as especially common in family medicine.

This list reflects changes that took effect Oct. 1, 2011. See "One Last Annual ICD-9 Update," Hughes C. Family Practice Management. September/October 2011;24. <http://www.aafp.org/fpm/2011/0900/p24.html>.
