

The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio
Schedule for Primary Care Week, 2012

Day	Theme for the Day	Time, Activity, Speakers, Coordinators
Monday	What is Primary Care	11:30 AM-1:30 PM Primary Care Information Table (in coordination with “Spring Into Health” HR Wellness Campaign)  Info Table Coordinators: Family Medicine Interest Group (FMIG), Department of Family &amp; Community Medicine, South Central Area Health Education Center (AHEC), Ms. Briana Dunkin (MS-1) 12:00p-12:50 PM What is Primary Care? Round Table Discussion  Join us for a Round Table discussion with Primary Care Providers from medicine, nursing, pharmacy, public health and others will explore the question “What is Primary Care?” followed by a robust conversation about how our various perspectives shape one common vision of primary care.  Panelists: Dr. Schlenker (Director, Metro Health District), Dr. Turner (Director, ReACH), Dr. Nadeau (Residency Director, Family Medicine), Dr. Kumar (Clerkship Director, Family Medicine), Dr. Bailey (Psychiatry), PA Bonson (Physician Assistant Studies), Dr. Cantu (Family &amp; Community Nursing), Dr. Bazaldua (Community Pharmacy), Dr. Lavin (Behavioural Health Nursing), Mr. Abraham (Facilitator)  Coordinators: Ms. Kelley Scott (MS-2), FMIG 5:00p-6:00 PM US Health Care: The Good News (PBS documentary screening)  See: http://video.pbs.org/video/2198039605  Coordinators: Jerry Abraham (MS-2), Primary Care Progress-UTHSCSA, AMSA
Tuesday	The Most Vulnerable	11:30 AM-1:30 PM Primary Care Information Table (in coordination with “Spring Into Health” HR Wellness Campaign)  Info Table Coordinators: PRIDE Gay Straight Alliance, Mr. Chris Alonzo (MS-1), Ms. Briana Dunkin (MS-1) 12:00 Noon-12:50 PM Serving the Underserved  Learn about the healthcare disparities that affect San Antonio and how the University Health System (UHS) is meeting the growing challenge of serving San Antonio’s vulnerable populations. The National Health Service Corp (NHSC) provides scholarships and incentives for students who select careers in primary care. Hear how the NHSC is meeting the needs of communities across America.

		Panelists: Dr. Bryan Alsip (Chief Medical Officer, University Health System), Mr. Richard Brantley (National Health Service Corps), Dr. Gary McWilliams (UHS, CareLink) Coordinators: Ms. Kristy Riniker (MD/MPH Candidate 2014), FRONTERA DE SALUD, Student Run Free Clinics, PHR Refugee Clinic
Wednesday	Primary Care Town Hall and Exhibition	11:30 AM-3:00 PM Primary Care Information Table (in collaboration with “Spring Into Health” HR Wellness Campaign) Info Table Coordinators: Internal Medicine Student Interest Group (IMSIG), Ms. Briana Dunkin (MS-1) 11:30 AM-3:00 PM Primary Care Exhibition Visit Exhibition booths of various Health Science Center academic departments and institutes, San Antonio community organizations and student groups that are serving primary care needs. Exhibition Coordinator: Ms. Paula Winkler, South Central AHEC The exhibition currently includes: Family Medicine, Family Medicine Interest Group, School of Nursing, Physician Assistant Studies, Center for Patient Safety &amp; Health Policy, Center for Medical Humanities &amp; Ethics, University Health Systems, Christus Family Medicine Residency Program, Area Health Education Center, MD/MPH Program, STEER Program, WellMed, Community Medical Associates, The San Antonio Metropolitan Health District, Methodist Healthcare Ministries, South East Texas Medical Associates (SETMA) 11:30 AM -3:00 PM Primary Care Poster Session Primary care research and service projects by Health Science Center faculty &amp; students will be showcased in the Poster Session. Poster Session Coordinator: Ms. Amy Yu (MS-2) 12:00 Noon-12:50 PM Primary Care Needs of Aging Populations Geriatricians and Adult Medicine providers will share their experiences working with aging populations. As the population ages, is there an adequate supply of providers committed to the needs and circumstances of the aging? Coordinators: Navid Nafissi (MS-2), Internal Medicine Student Interest Group 3:00-5:00 PM Primary Care Town Hall The Keynote address, “Progress in Primary Care” will be delivered by Dr. James L. Holly, UT Health Science Center Alumni and CEO of Southeast Texas Medical Associates (SETMA). Dr. Holly will describe the evolution of primary care delivery from his perspective as a community healthcare provider

		and describe the innovations that are driving a more sustainable and patient-centered approach in healthcare. The address will be followed by a facilitated community dialogue exploring various questions: What is driving the demand for primary care and why are primary care providers in short supply? What are the stigmas associated with primary care and how can we encourage more students to consider careers in primary care? What are the challenges faced by providers in our community? How can the Health Science Center continue to drive innovation and improvement research in primary care? Keynote address: Dr. James L. Holly "Primary Care Progress" Coordinators: Jerry Abraham, Paula Winkler, Kristy Riniker Agenda: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Welcome (Dr. Barbara Turner)</li> <li>Introduction (Dr. Carlos Jaén)</li> <li>Keynote (Dr. James L. Holly)</li> <li>Primary Care Progress Video (2 minutes)</li> <li>Facilitated Discussion (Facilitator: Jerry Abraham)</li> </ul> 5:00 PM President's Reception/Celebrating the Work of Primary Care Providers
Thursday	Primary Care for Our Children	11:30 AM-1:30 PM Primary Care Information Table (in coordination with "Spring Into Health" HR Wellness Campaign) Info Table Coordinators: Professor of Nursing Martha Martinez, PA-I students, Psychiatry Interest Group, Ms. Briana Dunkin (MS-1) 12:00 Noon-12:50 PM Caring for Our Children Pediatric providers will share their experiences working with children. What are issues involved in providing primary care to children? Coordinators: Ms. Caroline Camosy (MS-2), Pediatrics Interest Group
Friday	The Future of Primary Care	11:30 AM-1:30 PM Primary Care Information Table (in coordination with "Spring Into Health" HR Wellness Campaign) Info Table Coordinators: FNP students, PA-II students, Ms. Briana Dunkin (MS-1), Wellness Campaign 12:00 Noon-12:50 PM The Future of Primary Care: Team-Based Health Delivery The Center for Patient Safety &amp; Health Policy and the School of Nursing are finding unique and innovative approaches team-based healthcare delivery. Come hear more about the exciting future of primary care at our HSC.

		Panelists: Dr. Novak (Associate Dean of Nursing &amp; Director of Student Health Center, Employee Health &amp; Wellness Clinic and UT Nursing Clinical Enterprise) Dr. Htay, Dr. Aung, Dr. Horton, PA Studies Coordinators: School of Nursing, PA Studies, Center for Patient Safety &amp; Health Policy
--	--	--

Primary Care Partners

- Office of the President
- Department of Family and Community Medicine
- South Central Texas Area Health Education Center (AHEC)
- Texas Academy of Family Physicians (TAFP)
- Center for Patient Safety and Health Policy
- Center for Medical Humanities and Ethics
- MD/MPH Program and STEER Program
- Physician Assistant Studies Program
- UT Health Science Center Libraries
- School of Medicine
- School of Nursing
- Family Medicine Interest Group
- American Medical Student Association
- Internal Medicine Student Interest Group
- Physicians for Human Rights Refugee Clinic
- Pediatrics Interest Group
- Student Run Free Clinics
- Primary Care Progress
- Frontera de Salud