

Conference on Practice Improvement: Health Information and Patient Education
November 8-11, 2007 – Newport Beach, California

Application for Resident Scholarship Program

Please type

Name _____ Degree _____

Home Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Home telephone _____ E-mail address _____

Residency Program _____ Program Director _____

Residency telephone _____ Residency Fax _____

Resident year as of 11/07 (circle one) PG1 PG2 PG3 PG4

Are you an AAFP member? ___yes ___no Indicate constituent chapter: _____

Scholarship covers registration and partial travel reimbursement - $1,200

Please provide information about practice improvement activities you have undertaken as a resident: (attach separate page if needed)

1. Practice improvement implementation including health information or patient education that you have conducted in your practice: _____

2. Health information or patient education activities you promote within your residency program or practice: _____

3. Health information or patient education activities you have participated in involving the community or practice: _____

Have you submitted a proposal to present at the 2007 conference? _____Yes _____ No

If yes, circle category: Seminar Lecture Paper Poster Special Interest Discussion

Topic _____

Applications will be competitively judged and points awarded for:

- Practice improvement including health information and patient education activities
- Program director's recommendation
- Quality of application including clarity and neatness
- Academy chapter membership

(Scholarship recipients are required to serve as facilitators for at least one breakout session at the conference.)

Send completed application and letter of recommendation by August 15th to:

Melody Goller, CMP
Health Education Manager
AAFP
11400 Tomahawk Creek Parkway
Leawood, KS 66211-2672
Fax: 913-906-6099

The letter of recommendation should address the following:

1. What has the applying resident contributed to practice improvement including health information and patient education efforts in the residency program?
2. How does the residency program plan to capitalize on what the resident learns at the conference in their practice improvement efforts?

Any questions? Call 1-800-274-2237, ext. 3142 or e-mail: ncrossfi@aafp.org

Visit the conference web site: www.aafp.org/pec.xml

The Conference on Practice Improvement: Health Information and Patient Education is sponsored by
The American Academy of Family Physicians and the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine