

Candidate Information New Physicians

National Conference of Constituency Leaders — Sheraton Kansas City Hotel at Crown Center

Office: Alternate Delegates (2) to the AAFP Congress of Delegates, representing the NEW PHYSICIANS Constituency.

Candidate Criteria:

Any Active member of the AAFP who: fits the definition for the constituency (those who were first eligible for Active membership in the Academy less than seven years ago); registered for and in attendance at NCCL; and conforms to the expectations and regulations listed below.

Duties of the Office:

1. The successful candidates should be prepared to stay after NCCL to attend the “Post-Conference Meeting and Wrap-Up” with members of the NCCL Advisory Group and Staff on Saturday afternoon.
1. The new Alternate Delegates must be able to attend the Congress of Delegates for the next two years. It will be necessary to stay at the Congress of Delegates through the conclusion of the Congress’ business activities. Alternates work with the Delegates to attend to the business of the Congress and must be willing to reflect the views of the constituency in their remarks before reference committees and (as appropriate) their votes in the Congress. (Alternate Delegates only have the right to vote if they are seated as Delegates.) The Alternate Delegates are required to prepare a written report, summarizing actions of the Congress of Delegates meeting to be forwarded to the AAFP Member Relations Manager (and shared with the following year’s NCCL attendees).

New Physicians Delegates and Alternate Delegates will receive AAFP reimbursement of actual travel expenses for airfare, or for mileage at the current IRS rate and parking expenses, up to the cost of one full coach airline ticket, shuttle or cab expenses to and from the airport, and regular per diem (currently $400) for each meeting and travel day (maximum of four days) for attending the Congress of Delegates and New Physicians function at the AAFP Family Medicine Experience.

2. The Alternate Delegates and Delegates are asked to participate, if possible, in any new physician-related functions at the AAFP Family Medicine Experience after the completion of the Congress of Delegates. Registration for the AAFP Family Medicine Experience is not required to attend these functions.
3. Following the Congress, the Alternate Delegates become Delegates for the next year’s Congress. Elected individuals should be prepared to serve on the NCCL Advisory Group and attend the following year’s National Conference of Constituency Leaders. This duty involves two-three conference calls in advance of NCCL and sharing leadership duties during the conference (leading the discussion group, chairing the New Physicians Caucus and Elections, and chairing a reference committee).

Members of the NCCL Advisory Group will receive AAFP reimbursement of actual travel expenses for airfare, or for mileage at the current IRS rate and parking expenses, up to the cost of one full coach airline ticket, shuttle or cab expenses to and from the airport and regular per diem (currently $400) for each meeting and travel day necessitated by attendance (maximum of five).

Campaign Expectations/Regulations:

Candidates may declare in only one constituency (for which they are demographically qualified) and must submit the appropriate candidate declaration form, accompanied by a current curriculum vitae of no more than 2 pages front and back, four pages in total, before the deadline of 12:00 p.m. Central on Friday, April 23, 2021. Only Chapter Delegates to the New Physicians Constituency are eligible to vote for the New Physicians Alternate Delegates. Campaign materials (brochures, buttons, etc.) beyond the standard information prepared by NCSC staff from your declaration form and CV are strictly prohibited.

Each Candidate will be given:

- Two minutes for verbal remarks at the beginning of the New Physicians Caucus and Elections on Friday.

Candidates may utilize social media for the purpose of campaigning prior to and during NCCL provided the AAFP Guidelines: Using Social Media when Campaigning for Leadership Positions is followed:

The AAFP embraces the use of social media for member/organizational communications, and AAFP provides formal social media channels for this purpose. These channels (including but not limited to AAFP Facebook, AAFP Prez, YouTube, LinkedIn, G+) are not to be used for personal use, including the posting of messages selling products, recruiting, political campaigning or endorsements, promoting commercial or other ventures, or any messages perceived as spam. This includes the campaigning by members for AAFP leadership positions at the National Conference of Constituency Leaders, National Congress of Family Medicine Residents, National Congress of Student Members, and Congress of Delegates. These guidelines are posted online, and any comments that violate these guidelines will be removed. Regarding Twitter, the AAFP has no objections to candidates using the official event hashtag in any messages from their personal account, including campaign messages.

Please note: this restriction applies only to the official AAFP social media channels; the use of personal social media accounts is at each member's own discretion.
