FAMILY MEDICINE RESIDENTS
& MEDICAL STUDENTS

50 YEARS

The Secret to Your Success

Partner with the AAFP and get face to face with the future of family medicine at National Conference.

Here's what past exhibitors said:

“It's the only way to reach medical students from across the nation in person.”

The Specialty

Family medicine is growing. The specialty is more evenly distributed throughout the country than any other.

1 in 5 office visits are conducted by family physicians.

Family physicians see an average of 83 patients each week.

Due to population growth and aging, office visits will reach 565 million by 2025.

The Organization

The AAFP has been supporting family physicians since 1947. Our members trust us to provide the most up-to-date information.

129,600 members strong—that includes practicing family physicians, residents, and medical students.

Chapters in each of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Uniformed Services, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

It's our goal to have 25% of medical students selecting family medicine by 2030.

The Event

National Conference is the destination for family medicine residents and medical students. We host more than 2,500 peers, hundreds of residency programs, and leaders in the specialty.

99% of exhibitors would recommend National Conference to their peers.

Hosts an average of 1,500+ medical students and 1,300+ residents.

In 2023, 95% of exhibitors stated that exhibiting at National Conference is important to their organization.

“National Conference is the best bang for your buck!”

“A great meeting to collaborate with future physicians.”
