8. AAFP GUIDELINES: USING SOCIAL MEDIA WHEN CAMPAIGNING FOR LEADERSHIP POSITIONS

The AAFP embraces the use of social media for member/organizational communications, and AAFP provides formal social media channels for this purpose. The AAFP channels (including but not limited to AAFP Facebook, AAFP Prez, YouTube, LinkedIn) are not to be used for personal use, including the posting of messages selling products, recruiting, political campaigning or endorsements, promoting commercial or other ventures, or any messages perceived as spam. This includes the campaigning by members for AAFP leadership positions at the National Conference of Special Constituencies, National Congress of Family Medicine Residents, National Congress of Student Members and Congress of Delegates. These guidelines are posted online, and any comments that violate these guidelines will be removed. Regarding Twitter, the AAFP has no objections to candidates using the official event hashtag in any messages from their personal account, including campaign messages. Please note: this restriction applies only to the official AAFP social media channels; the use of personal social media accounts is at each member's own discretion.
