Conflict of Interest Policy of American Academy of Family Physicians

PURPOSE

The purpose of this Conflict of Interest Policy ("Policy") of the American Academy of Family Physicians (the "Academy") is to protect the interests of the Academy when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of a member of the Board of Directors of the Academy ("Board"); an officer of the Academy ("Officer"); a member of the Academy ("Member Representative") serving in other organizational capacities, such as members of Academy commissions ("Commissions") and Academy representatives to external entities ("External Entities"); a chief editor of any of the Academy's journals ("Editor"); or any other employee of the Academy who is classified as "exempt" under the U.S. Department of Labor regulations ("Employee").

This Policy is also intended to assist the Board, the Officers, the Member Representatives, the Editors, and the Employees to fulfill their respective obligations to act at all times in the best interest of the Academy. In order to preserve and protect the integrity of the Academy and its decisions, and to foster an open and trusting relationship between and among members of the Board and Employees, this Policy requires all members of the Board, Officers, Member Representatives, Editors, and Employees to maintain the highest standard of corporate ethics not only to avoid conflicts of interest in the Academy's affairs, but also to avoid even the appearance of impropriety that undisclosed dualities of interest can create.

This Policy is intended to supplement, but not replace, any applicable laws governing conflicts of interest and fiduciary duties applicable to not-for-profit corporations.

[NOTE: A separate policy exists for all Academy-produced continuing medical education activities. Individuals who plan, carry out, or contribute to the content of these activities are subject to the "CME Policy and Procedures for Full Disclosure and Identification and Resolution of Conflicts of Interest" and should complete the disclosure statement developed specifically for these activities.]

Not all relationships automatically exclude an individual from service on behalf of the Academy or involvement in a specific matter, although it may be that participation should be avoided, limited, or qualified by disclosure of the competing interest. If there is any uncertainty about whether there is a conflict, the individual should err on the side of full disclosure.

Additionally, upon any developments or material change in circumstances, an Interested Person shall follow the procedure set forth immediately below.

b. Procedure for Addressing Conflict of Interest

i. Disclosure of Potential Conflict of Interest

For any Interested Person who has a Personal or Private Interest in any Transaction or any Interested Person who reasonably believes such an Interest exists in another person, the following shall apply:

1. If the Transaction is to be presented to or otherwise addressed by the Board, Commission or External Entity, as the case may be, for deliberation, authorization, approval, or ratification, the Interested Person must make a prompt, full, and frank disclosure of the Personal or Private Interest, either verbally or in writing, to the Board, Commission or External Entity, as the case may be, prior to its acting on such Transaction.
2. If the Interested Person is an Employee and the Transaction involves Academy operations, the Interested Person must make a prompt, full, and frank disclosure of the Personal or Private Interest, either verbally or in writing, to his or her Academy Division Director or Vice President, if applicable, otherwise, to the Academy's Executive Vice President, Deputy Executive Vice President or General Counsel, prior to any involvement in the Transaction.

3. The Interested Person must disclose the existence of his or her Personal or Private Interest and all material facts known to him or her about the Personal or Private Interest and potential Conflict of Interest.

ii. Procedures Required for Board or Commission Action When a Conflict of Interest Exists

1. When an Interested Person has a Personal or Private Interest in any Transaction presented to the Board or a Commission, the Board or Commission must follow the procedures below when acting on the related Transaction.
2. The Interested Person may make a presentation at the Board or Commission meeting, but after such presentation and discussion, the Interested Person must leave the meeting during the vote on the Transaction that results in the Conflict of Interest.
3. The Board or Commission may appoint, if appropriate, a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed Transaction or other Conflict of Interest.
4. After exercising due diligence, the Board or Commission will determine whether the Academy cannot obtain a more advantageous Transaction with reasonable efforts under the circumstances, from a person or entity that would not give rise to a Conflict of Interest.
5. If a more advantageous Transaction is not reasonably attainable under circumstances that would not give rise to a Conflict of Interest, the Board or Commission shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested members whether the Transaction is in the Academy's best interest and for its own benefit and whether the Transaction is fair and reasonable to the Academy and will make its decision as to whether to enter into the Transaction in conformity with such determination.
6. The Board or Commission will further follow all conflicts of interest laws to the extent they apply.

iii. Procedures Required for Academy Action When an Employee Conflict of Interest Exists

1. When an Interested Person is an Employee that has a Personal or Private Interest in any Transaction regarding Academy operations in which the Employee is involved, the Academy's Executive Vice President and Deputy Executive Vice President shall consider and make

- ii. If the Board or a Commission has reasonable cause to believe that an Interested Person has failed to disclose a Personal or Private Interest in connection with an actual or potential Conflict of Interest, it shall inform the Interested Person of the basis for such belief and afford the Interested Person an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
- iii. If, after hearing the response of the Interested Person and making such further investigation as may be warranted in the circumstances, the Board or a Commission determines that the Interested Person has in fact failed to disclose a Personal or Private Interest in connection with an actual or potential Conflict of Interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action as outlined herein.
