Family Medicine Political Action Committee Update

Jason Dees, DO, FAAFP
Chair, FamMedPAC Board of Directors
St. Louis, MO

Mark Cribben, JD
Director, FamMedPAC
Washington, D.C.

Elect candidates to the United States Congress who support AAFP's legislative goals and objectives.

Since 2005, FamMedPAC raised and contributed over $5 million to more than 400 candidates.

The ONLY political organization that promotes family medicine.

FamMedPAC contributed a record amount during the 2016 election cycle!

2016 Election Cycle Campaign Contributions

$1,020,200 To 154 Candidates

(New Record!)

56 % Democrats, 44 % Republicans

(90% won!)

The 2016 election-cycle saw FamMedPAC receive record support from AAFP members!

2016 Election Cycle Fundraising

$975,000 received from 3,576 AAFP Members
(New Record!)

If every AAFP member contributed just $100, we would have more than $10 million –FamMedPAC would be the largest medical PAC in the country.
