Consent for Publication of Photograph, Video, or Other Identifying Material

Name: _____
(Please print) (Last) (First) (Middle initial)

By signing below, I hereby give the American Academy of Family Physicians (“AAFP”) the right and permission to publish, copy, or distribute my photograph, video, and/or other identifying material (the “Material”) in American Family Physician and associated publications; on the American Family Physician Web site; on other Internet sites, including but not limited to Facebook and YouTube; and in any other multimedia or electronic medium existing now or in the future.

I have seen the Material to be published and hereby approve the use of such Material. I hereby assign and transfer all rights, title, and interest in and to the Material, and all rights in and to the copyright of the Material, to the AAFP. I understand that the Material may not be published elsewhere without the written permission of the AAFP.

I understand the following:

- American Family Physician is published by the American Academy of Family Physicians twice each month. It is mailed to approximately 180,000 physicians in the United States and some foreign countries.
- Content from American Family Physician is also published on the World Wide Web at <http://www.aafp.org/afp>. This Web site is open to the general public.
- If deemed appropriate, the American Academy of Family Physicians may grant permission for articles in American Family Physician to be translated into other languages and distributed to physicians in foreign countries.
- My full name will not be published (in print or on the Web site).
- The Material will not be used for advertising or promotional purposes of any kind.
- The Material will not be used out of context (example: the photograph will not be published in an article that is unrelated to the subject of the photograph).
