

BENEFITS OF AAFP MEMBERSHIP

As a New Physician AAFP Member, you have access to all the traditional benefits and resources available to members plus:

- 50% discount on national dues and discounts on select chapter dues
- Discounts on select products and courses through Experience the AAFP, a program designed for new physicians (www.aafp.org/experience)
- Leadership opportunities and special representation through national AAFP or chapters; New Physician seat on the Board of Directors; two Delegate and two Alternate Delegate seats at the Congress of Delegates

BOARD CERTIFICATION/MAINTENANCE OF CERTIFICATION

- Report, track, and plan your CME to maximize your lifelong learning and to fulfill your requirements for state licensure, ABFM Maintenance of Certification (MC-FP), credentialing, and other requirements
- Send your CME transcript to third parties upon request and automatically report to the ABFM
- Residents can track any CME taken on or after January 1 of the year in which they complete residency
- Discounts on quality, relevant CME that is evidence-based for family physicians (self-study courses, live clinical courses, Board Review courses, Family Medicine Experience (formerly AAFP Assembly), Board Review questions, and Self-Assessment modules to assist with Maintenance of Certification)
- Prepare for your boards and sharpen your medical knowledge with the AAFP's FP Essentials and FP Audio. FP Essentials covers core medical knowledge—the same medical topics addressed by the Board examinations. FP Audio's MP3 format makes it easy to learn on the go. Subscribe today.
- Integrate evidence-based medicine, performance measures, and improvement strategies through METRIC®, an online program designed to fulfill MC-FP Part IV. Topics include asthma, diabetes, hypertension, and geriatrics.

PRACTICE MANAGEMENT

- FPM Toolbox—more than 150 practice management tools, with flow sheets, encounter forms, billing and claims processing forms, coding and documentation, staffing worksheets, and more
- Dedicated staff available to answer questions on coding and billing issues, payment/reimbursement issues, practice management, privileging, managed care issues, and more
- AAFP Buyer's Guide—one-stop online resource to simplify the search for goods and services for the medical practice (medical/office equipment, financial services, software, and staffing)
- PCMH—practice redesign to improve the quality and cost efficiency of care and tools to evaluate your practice organization, using health information technology and quality measures.
- The PCMH Planner—provides step-by-step directions for constructing your patient-centered medical home—wherever you are in the process
- AAFP Member Advantage—discounts on personal, practice, and finance products and services

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF FAMILY PHYSICIANS
STRONG MEDICINE FOR AMERICA

BENEFITS OF AAFP MEMBERSHIP

CONNECTIONS

- AAFP mobile app—featuring enhanced access to AAFP services, the mobile app puts valuable tools and resources at your fingertips
- AAFP Member Interest Groups—Join a member interest group and connect with other AAFP members with shared professional interests. AAFP MIGs include: Direct Primary Care, Emergency Medicine/Urgent Care, Global Health, Hospital Medicine, Independent Solo/Small Group Practice, Oral Health, Reproductive Health Care, Rural Health, Single Payer Health Care, and Telehealth (as of Feb, 2015) (www.aafp.org/mig)
- AAFP listservs—secure members-only discussion lists to pose questions among peers on specific topics and member constituency groups
- Local connection through chapter membership
- Meetings (Family Medicine Experience [formerly AAFP Assembly], National Conference of Constituency Leaders, clinical courses, etc) around the country
- AAFP News—get the latest family medicine news
- Share insights and experiences of new-to-practice physicians in the AAFP News Fresh Perspectives blog
- AAFP Facebook and Twitter

ADVOCACY

- AAFP advocates for family physicians and their patients to legislators, health insurance companies, medical specialty societies, and employers
- Opportunity to ensure your voice is heard at the national or state level—sign up for Speak Out, AAFP's online advocacy tool
- Washington Update—Get the most current information regarding AAFP's federal advocacy efforts on behalf of family physicians and their patients in this report from AAFP's Government Affairs team in Washington, DC.
- Subscribe to In The Trenches, the AAFP's blog about the organization's efforts in advocacy and practice advancement.

CLINICAL RESOURCES

- FamilyDoctor.org—patient education and easy-to-read instructive health care materials
- Clinical Practice Guidelines—AAFP-developed and endorsed, evidence-based clinical practice guidelines and preventive services recommendations
- Immunization Resources—annual child, adolescent, and adult immunization schedules and other immunization policy recommendations developed by Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in collaboration with the AAFP

CAREER PLANNING

- Career planning resources for searching, evaluating opportunities, developing your CV, interviewing, and negotiating
- CareerLink connects family physicians and employers with clinical and faculty jobs—view jobs, post resumes anonymously, create personal alerts, and job seeker accounts