Journals and Journal Articles

Medical History. London: Wellcome Institute for the History of Medicine, 1957-present.

Journal Articles

“AMA acts to halt hospital discrimination against general practitioners.” GP 13 (January 1956):1

“Ban G.P.s from the operating room?” Medical Economics, June 18, 1962.

Bogdonoff, M.D. “Editorial: Flexner and Engel; An important formula.” Archives of Internal Medicine 133 (February 1974):316-317.

“Clinic and classroom: In family practice, as Maine goes...” Hospital Practice, October 1973.

Duke, M. “Once upon a time, there was a little black bag.” The Pharos of Alpha Omega Alpha-Honor Medical Society 67 (Summer 2004):14-6.

Forster, J. and J. Gray. “Here’s looking at: Medical politics: Carrying the caduceus into battle after battle.” Medical Economics 75 (October 1998):154-6, 159, 163-4 passim.

“GP and the hospital: 96% of AAGP members content with hospital privileges.” Hospital Practice, June 1970.

“GP and the hospital: approval of training programs tied to privileges by AAGP.” Hospital Practice, November 1970.

Himmelwright, G.O. “History and objectives of the AAGP.” Maryland State Medical Journal 15 (September 1966).

Huckleberry, E.R. “In those days...Tillamook County.” Oregon Historical Quarterly 71 (1970:116-140.

Norwood, W.F. “American Medical Education from the Revolutionary War to the Civil War.” Journal of Medical Education 32 (June 1957): 433-447.

Saenz, H.R. “How one FMG has adjusted to life and medical practice in the U.S.” Michigan Medicine 78 (December 1979):709-710.

“The trend is to specialism.” Medical Marketing, May 1961.

Van Cleve, H.P. “Special report - the general practitioner and the price of his recovery.” Minnesota Medicine, June 1965.

Young, P. “Family practice: birth and development of a specialty.” American Family Physician 56 (September 1997):725-726.

________. “A tumultuous road to the creation of the American Board of Family Practice.” California Family Physician, November/ December 1994.